New Licenses Plate Scam

A man found his license plate missing so he called the police to file a report. They told him people were stealing the plates to get free gas. Given the rise in gas prices, people have taken to stealing license plates, putting them on their car, then getting gas and running. The gas station will have 'your' license plate # and you could be in trouble for 'pump and run.' Check your car periodically to be sure you still have plates. If you should find it missing, file a report immediately!!!

We had a at BINGO!

The Bingo committee is happy to report that our efforts with the games and raffles were fun and we gained some great experience. That experience will help drive larger crowds to our fall Bingo Extravaganza sessions. Overall, we entertained 125 participants with great jackpots and door prizes.

Karen Deal (Midwest Bank) was our main caller with help from Michael Swinford and Eric Nordtvedt (Parkway Bank). Greeters; Katie Kwiatt (Rainbow Hospice), Eneida Gonzalez (Parkway Bank) along with Susan Dowfort (JPCOC) and Charlie Mayer (Home Inspections by Eight Winds) provided participants with program guides and a door prize tickets. Lee Puttrich (Shaklee Dist.), Claudia Hernandez (McDonalds) Thomas Byrne (Byrne Realty), Carmela Sautariello (Parkway Bank), Gus Karamaniolas (Fischman Liquors), Susan Bouzide (WSMRCA) and Michael Metzler (Merrill Lynch) assisted selling Bingo books and raffles games. Carol Gawron, JPCOC Executive Director kept everything running smoothly. Brian Nadig, JPCOC President kept his eye on the raffle tabs.

This October we'll feature more cards, lower prices and "bring a friend" Free Bingo sheet strips. Thanks to all those who supported us with this special new
